

Please find attached the following documents relating to the opening of an account to enable you to trade on the National Stock Exchange of Australia with Centre Capital Securities EXECUTION ONLY service:

- Account opening form
- Financial Services Guide (tells you about who we are)

You will also need to supply us with 100 points of identification for each of the people named on the Account opening form:

- Passport or Birth Certificate = 70 points each
- Drivers Licence = 40 points
- Credit Card/Debit Card/Healthcare Card/Utility Bill = 25 points each

Note: An account can not be opened until identification has been supplied.

If you are selling shares you will need to provide us with the above and the SRN or HIN number relating to the holding (which we will check with the appropriate share registry). If the holding is CHESS sponsored (the holding has a HIN number) you will also be required to sign an authority to transfer the holding to the NSX. This must be done prior to placing the order.

If you are buying shares you will need to provide us with the account opening form and applicable identification. Unless you are a full service client you will need to deposit funds to the Centre Capital Securities Trust account (details below) prior to placing an order. Once you have deposited funds you can email or fax through the confirmation or bank receipt to our office and place the trade. Upon completion of the trade any surplus funds will be transferred back to your nominated account.
